

SWEET GRASS FARM ON THE YELLOWSTONE BIG TIMBER, MONTANA | $4,950,000

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Located off Howie Road, the Sweet Grass Farm on the Yellowstone is just three miles northeast of the small town of Big Timber, Montana, and approximately 45 minutes from Livingston and just over an hour from Bozeman. The Yellowstone River forms the southern boundary for approximately one mile. Otter Creek enters the property from the north and meanders along the western boundary before joining the Yellowstone. The 609± deeded acres offer crop production or grazing, including 426± irrigated acres, with approximately 366 of those acres being irrigated under five pivots. Water rights are primarily conveyed by two irrigation ditches that traverse the property. Structural improvements include an 8,200± square foot shop/storage/cattle handling facility with well and septic. Undeveloped building sites offer sweeping views of the Yellowstone River and the Beartooth, Absaroka, and Crazy Mountain ranges.
