Welcome to your serene 69± acre family estate in Madison County! Tucked away just a quarter mile from HWY 49, this peaceful retreat is perfect for your family. Entering private gates, you'll discover a charming 3,550 sq. ft. custom-built home overlooking a 20± acre lake stocked with bass, bream, and catfish. This 4-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom home features an inviting layout, with the primary bedroom conveniently located downstairs. The kitchen is designed for easy family gatherings, featuring ceramic countertops, ample storage, a generous pantry, and a convenient island. Off the kitchen, you'll find a spacious family room, a cozy breakfast room, a formal dining room, a sitting room for more special occasions, and a bonus room currently used as an office. From the breakfast room, step out onto a porch with a charming walkway leading to a fenced kitchen garden and a lovely sitting area. Enjoy the property's tranquility while lounging on the large patio or front porch, providing easy access to a gazebo and pier overlooking the picturesque lake. A 100x40 workshop and equipment storage building with a car/equipment lift, air conditioning, and a half bath (25x40) offers ample space for your projects and storage needs. Additional storage buildings are also available. The property's orchard is home to pecan, peach, plum, pear, and apple trees, perfect for a fresh harvest. And for the little ones, there's a playground beneath a 400-year-old oak tree, complete with monkey bars, a seesaw, and swings. Partially fenced, this property is ideal for cattle or horses. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to own a one-of-a-kind home in Flora; it won't stay on the market long! Call Ellen for your private showing today!
