35.5± Acres in Neshoba County, MS

$435,000

This 35.5± acre property in Neshoba County is conveniently located between Meridian and Philadelphia, MS, and offers everything your family needs for a perfect home or weekend getaway. Ideal for hunting, trail riding, or creating your horse ranch, this property features a 2,500 sq. ft. home with three spacious bedrooms, three full baths, a large kitchen, and a family room. The home includes oversized rooms, ample storage and closets, and a 40 x 60 full basement that doubles as a tornado shelter, additional living quarters, game room, or storage. This well-insulated residence is extra safe as it was built with concrete and rebar, keeping utility bills minimal. It also features a wood-burning heater with forced fan vents, a new 80-gallon water heater, ceiling fans, an updated kitchen, fresh paint, and a two-car garage.

Additional structures include a storage building and a 20x40 equipment storage shed and workshop. An 800 sq. ft. one-bedroom, one-bath cabin with a full kitchen offers extra living space for a teenager or family member. This cabin is livable and only needs minor TLC. The property includes a 500-gallon propane tank for the cabin and a 1,500-gallon tank for the main home, both supplied by well water and with their own septic systems. The main house is wired for a 10,000-watt generator, and new solar panels for the home and cabin are included.

The 15± acres of gently rolling fields with scattered trees, 18-20-year-old pine, and mature timber create a beautiful landscape. The property is abundant with deer and turkey, making it an excellent recreational hunting area. Explore this property's many possibilities by scheduling a private viewing with Tom Smith today!
