- 28 (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-202). 29 10. Sellers may be exempt from having to complete the Disclosure form in certain limited circumstances (e.g. public auctions, 30 court orders, some foreclosures and bankruptcies, new construction with written warranty or owner has not resided on the property at any time within the prior 3 years). (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-209). 31
- 11. Buyers are advised to include home, wood infestation, well, water sources, septic system, lead-based paint, radon, mold, 32 and other appropriate inspection contingencies in the contract, as the Disclosure form is not a warranty of any kind by the 33 seller, and is not a substitute for any warranties or inspections the buyer may desire to purchase. 34
- 12. Any repair of disclosed defects must be negotiated and addressed in the Purchase and Sale Agreement; otherwise, seller is 35 36 not required to repair any such items.
- 13. Buyers may, but do not have to, waive their right to receive the Disclosure form from the sellers if the sellers provide a 37 disclaimer statement with no representations or warranties (See Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-202). 38
- 14. Remedies for misrepresentations or nondisclosure in a Property Condition Disclosure statement may be available to buyer 39 and are set out fully in Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-208. Buyer should consult with an attorney regarding any such matters. 40
- 15. Representations in the Disclosure form are those of the sellers only, and not of any real estate licensee, although licensees 41 are required to disclose to all parties adverse facts of which the licensee has actual knowledge or notice. 42

Mrs. Debra Dodd This form is copyrighted and may only be used in real estate transactions in which is involved as a Tennessee REALTORS® authorized user. Unauthorized use of the form may result in legal sanctions being brought against the user and should be reported to Tennessee REALTORS® at (615) 321-1477.

- 16. Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 47-18-104(b), sellers of newly constructed residences on a septic system are prohibited 43 from knowingly advertising or marketing a home as having more bedrooms than are permitted by the subsurface sewage 44 disposal system permit. 45
 - 17. Sellers must disclose the presence of any known exterior injection well, the presence of any known sinkhole(s), the results of any known percolation test or soil absorption rate performed on the property that is determined or accepted by the Department of Environment and Conservation, and whether the property is located within a Planned Unit Development as defined by Tenn. Code Ann. § 66-5-213 and, if requested, provide buyers with a copy of the development's restrictive covenants, homeowner bylaws and master deed. Sellers must also disclose if they have knowledge that the residence has ever been moved from an existing foundation to another foundation.

The Buyers and Sellers involved in the current or prospective real estate transaction for the property listed above acknowledge that they were informed of their rights and obligations regarding Residential Property Disclosures, and that this information was provided by the real estate licensec(s) prior to the completion or reviewing of a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclosure, a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Disclaimer Statement, or a Tennessee Residential Property Condition Exemption Notification. Buyers and Sellers also acknowledge that they were advised to seek the advice of an attorney on any legal questions they may have regarding this information or prior to taking any legal actions.

The Tennessee Residential Property Disclosure Act states that anyone transferring title to residential real property must provide information about the condition of the property. This completed form constitutes that disclosure by the Seller. The information contained in the disclosure is the representation of the owner and not the representation of the real estate licensee or sales person, if any. This is not a warranty or a substitute for any professional inspections or warranties that the purchasers may wish to obtain.

Buyers and Sellers should be aware that any sales agreement executed between the parties shall supersede this form as to the terms of sale, property included in the sale and any obligations on the part of the seller to repair items identified below and/or the obligation of the buyer to accept such items "as is."
