Offering Summary

Acreage:	31.26 Acres
Price / Acre:	$4,181
State:	Arkansas
City:	Dardanelle
County:	Yell
Property Type:	Timberland Hunting and Recreational Land

Property Overview

This 31.26 ± acre pine timber tract in Yell County offers the perfect blend of convenience and seclusion. Located 30 minutes from Russellville, this property offers both privacy and convenience for the avid hunters looking for a private place to hunt that is close to home. With ~0.4 miles of frontage along Slo Fork Road, the property has excellent public road access.

What sets this tract apart is its unique position - bordered on three sides by the Mt. Magazine Wildlife Management Area of the Ozark National Forest. Ownership here creates an exclusive and unique hunting opportunity that effectively opens the door to thousands of additional acres of public land that cannot otherwise be reached by the public.

The tract is planted in pine timber estimated at 12+ years old, presenting an immediate thinning opportunity that can generate revenue and offset your investment. Whether you're looking for a hunting base camp, a recreational getaway, or a long-term timber play, this property delivers access, privacy, and income potential all in one package.

Professional Background

Based in Arkansas, Greg is also a Consulting Forester and sole proprietor of Hay Forestry LLC. Prior to starting his consulting firm, he served as a Reforestation Advisor for ArborGen (2020-2024). Greg's extensive background spans various roles in forestry, sales, and silviculture.

Greg attended Stephen F. Austin State University where he was elected to the Alpha Zeta Chapter of Xi Sigma Pi (National Forestry Honor Society) in 1975 and earned his B.S. in Forest Management in 1977. Later in his career, he pursued additional post graduate work in graded curriculums at Clemson, Mississippi State, and West Virginia universities to earn a Certified Silviculturist credential from the US Forest Service (USFS). Early in his career, Greg worked as a skidder operator on a logging crew and an inventory technician, later serving on a Regional Reinforcement Fire Suppression Crew for the USFS, fighting fires in Arizona, New Mexico, Washington, Oregon, and Minnesota.

Greg has a long history of service to the Society of American Foresters (SAF), having been an active member since 1977. He served the organization in many capacities throughout the Ouachita Region and was elected SAF "Fellow" in 2000. In 2024, he received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Ouachita Society of American Foresters (OSAF) and was inducted into the Arkansas Foresters Hall of Fame. In 2025, he was awarded the Gifford Pinchot Medal by SAF, recognizing his outstanding contributions to forestry practice, administration, and professional development across North America. Greg is also an SAF Certified Forester.

Greg is also a long-time board member of the Arkansas Forestry Association (AFA), having served various roles throughout his membership, including as 2025 President. He has been also an active member of the Association of Consulting Foresters and the Forest Landowners Association, serving various committees within these organizations. Greg is a Registered Forester in Arkansas and maintains his Real Estate License in Arkansas. He has long been a dependable sponsor of local, regional, and national meetings, having also been an invited speaker at these meetings over the years.

Greg has two sons, three grandsons, and one granddaughter. He attends Fellowship Bible Church in Conway, Arkansas. In addition, Greg is a licensed pilot (instrument-rated) with over 3,000 flight hours.
