Float Road is an older Duck Hunting Club in a prime location (Grenada County) in the Mississippi Delta. The club was formed in 1974 and is considered to have some of the best duck hunting in the area. The extensive management for ducks over the years has greatly paid off. The ease of flooding and access to the holes are just a few things that creates “convenience”. The deer hunting won’t disappoint either. The family atmosphere will have you feeling right at home after the hunt. The minute you get voted in, you become family. So, if you are looking for a well-established duck club in Mississippi Delta, call Michael Oswalt today for your private showing!!
