Hunting land for sale in Amite County, MS. This 105 acres in big buck Amite County is a hunter's paradise. With great diversity of timber and multiple thick areas this tract holds deer all year long. Being that this tract is only an hour away from Baton Rouge, LA, you are just a short afternoon drive from the property. This tract also has great road systems throughout the property that make it easily accessible. There are two ponds on the property that make for great fishing as well. There is also big power line that goes through the middle of the property that make for great food plot locations. There are multiple sloughs throughout the property that will hold plenty of wood ducks during season. If you want a place that you can fish and hunt Amite County deer, turkeys, and ducks while being less than an hour from Baton Rouge, this is the tract for you. Call me today to set up your private showing of the perfect Amite County hunting tract today.
